FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Steven Adams Elected Ward 4 Trustee

Slave Lake, Alberta – Steven Adams has been elected as the new Trustee for Ward 4. The position became available when former Trustee Joy McGregor resigned in October 2018. Steven Adams won the resulting by-election that took place on February 4th, 2019 with 136 votes. He will be sworn in as a Trustee in the coming week prior to beginning his trustee orientation and the upcoming regular board meeting on February 20th, 2019.

Congratulations to Mr. Adams on his successful campaign. Special thanks to all the other candidates in the by-election for putting their name forward to represent Ward 4. Trustees play an important role in education by making vital decisions to govern school jurisdictions in the provision of quality educational services. We look forward to working with Steven Adams in his new role as our trustee!
